THE BLUESTOCKING • 1966

MARY BALDWIN COLLEGE, STAUNTON, VIRGINIA

And there are so many stairs to be climbed, so many doors to be opened . . .

. . . All too often only a part of a vast devouring mass . . .
Too seldom an individual dreamer . . .

Dear John . . .

I give up!!

Post exam trance.

Problem solving conference . . .

Are you kiddin me?

Well, REALLY!!!

Oh, Mr. Garrison!

Bad news?

Status at last!

Oops, caught in the act.

I don't know about this IBM bit!

This beats Saturday night at the movies any time!

Man, look at those legs!!

The monster mash.

Remember that last blind date?

Watch it, lady.

Santa Claus with a southern accent.

Where's the Eta Beta??

Apple
A day for the wind,

The white tornado!!

Musta been that apple cider!

Day:
Sophomore humor, hitchhiking, and apples.

The Christmas dance:
a never to be forgotten good time.

La Vie

à Paris

Vida

en Madrid

The Sound of Silence

Snowed in??

Happiness is wearing slacks!!

Twilight:

evening soothes the sun

flickering Lanterns

a peopled dusk darkness gathers in

A Light

"Here are a few essential facts . . . "

"I think I'll mull it over . . . "

"Oh no . . . a contradiction!!!"

Steps:

down into a structure of dreams . . .

awaiting fulfillment . . .

up to an ever-new experience

Life

Sophomore Show:
The hard work and rewards of "following the yellow brick road."

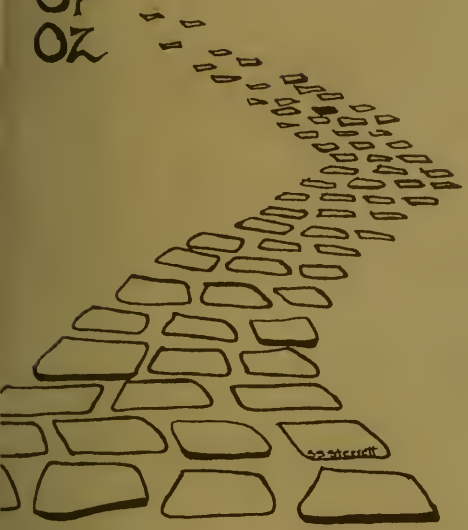
THE WIZARD OF OZ



CLASS OF 1968 PRESENTS

music, dialogue and production arrangements
furnished by TAMS-WITMARK Music Library, Inc., 757 Third Avenue, New York, New York.

"I'd love to go downtown, but all those bills and I haven't got a cent."

"will power . . . will power"

"Well, what can I say?!!"

the club:

mixed table talk waiting

no cross words

edible

and fraud flowers

substitutions

suppressions

Escape

"Listen I know this really nice guy . . ."

"Would I lie to you?"

"Yuk, yuk!"

A week means:

Books

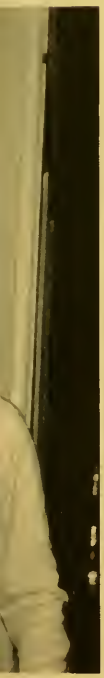
Clothes

"L.D.'s"

Friends

Panic

A Weekend



and more books!

"He's here, and I haven't got a thing to wear!!!"

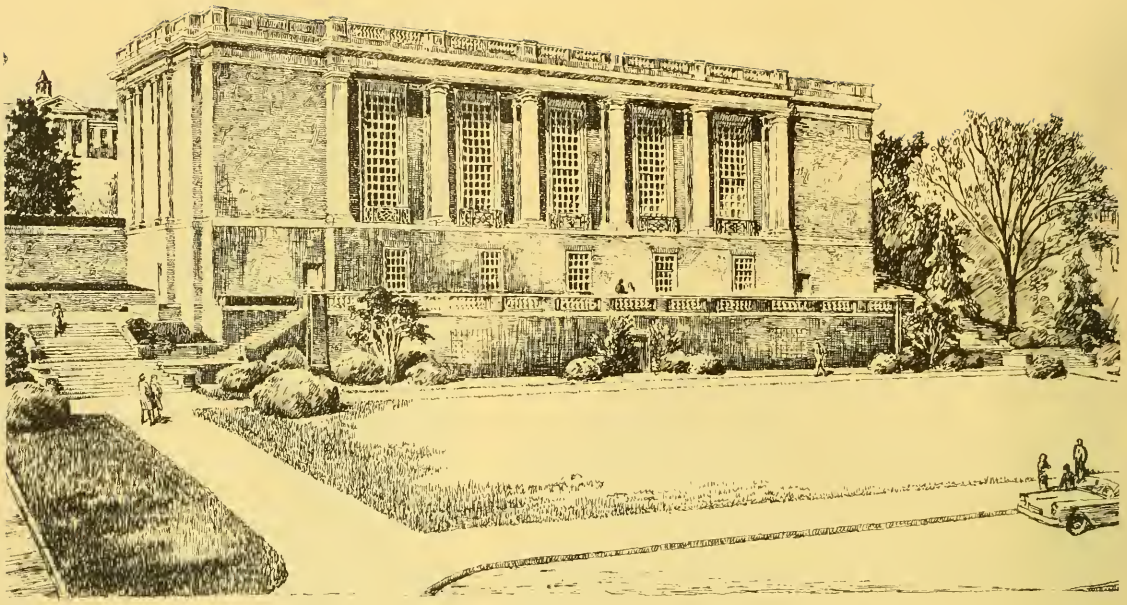
Meanwhile . . . back at the ranch . . .

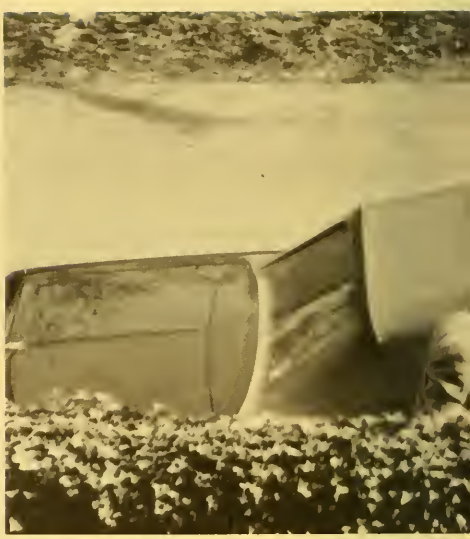
"A fine time for the zipper to get stuck!"

"Katy Winters would never believe this!"



The Library: a labor of men and bricks

Pairs:



Pause from aloneness,

in sharing

road to another world, occasional

of Life

off weekend,

Nature's

two

The Tube: that ever present
center of attention

Before . . .

After

During . . .

Thank you

Posture:

sling back

slumming and sliding

pure comfort

Monday slouch

comments are a pain in the neck

Pedic

DOZIER

Solitary:

Tree born island, sight and a free flown scarf, fluid, isolated drops merge—an edge, a leaving,

stark beauty,

a companionless bench

A scene

"and then I said . . . "

"I had the skim . . . "

"Who had coffee?"

"Now WAIT a minute!!!"

Spring:

Branches breathe, brushing the sky

the wind whispers

a groundwork for communication warmly soon . . .

sunlight breezes soften hair

"Sweet spontaneous spring"

Inside:

wishing for . . .

time and the walking air bright eyes for river

sunleaf patterns flourishing

the peace the grass knows and trees

sunshine

Outside

"While the present century was in teens . . ."

"Ah Vanitas Vanitatum."

Dr. Mary Swan Carroll

Chairman of the History Department

On her retirement, our sincere appreciation for her thirty-five years of teaching at Mary Baldwin College, as well as for the time spent in the capacity of director of the Informations Services, advisor to Campus Comments and professor of Journalism. For the intangibles of generosity, unswerving conviction and patient devotion, we remember a history of many days and Dr. Carroll.

Thus begins the seventy-fifth Bluestocking . . .

DEDICATION

Dr. James L. McAllister, Jr.

The Class of 1966 dedicates The Bluestocking to Dr. James L. McAllister Jr. for the sense of intellectual integrity which he brings to the campus and the interest and concern he shows for the students as individuals. It recognizes the manner in which he challenges students to realize their capacities. It acknowledges him for his appreciation of the individual, the perceptivity and sensitivity which marks his association with Mary Baldwin College. It recognizes his intellectual honesty, diligence, vitality and intensity which he expresses in the classroom. And above all, the class recognizes the dignity which he has instilled in this college.

THE TENNIS TEAM

THE RESIDENCE HALLS

SPENCER

Winding brick steps to a porch of white columns and wrought iron benches . . .

Studying in Spencer Lecture with a blanket and a cigarette . . .

A happy date lost at midnight:

"But, Mrs. Timberlake, I didn't know it was the elevator door . . . "

Feria de Abril 1964

Four plateaus — bound by a stairway — yielding popcorn gourmets, guitar virtuosos, and espionage disciples of "U.N.C.L.E." . . . Tension in a ping-pong tournament; tantrums in a stalled elevator . . .

LA MAISON FRANCAISE

A real live kitchen . . . dinner once a week . . . "salons" Monday through Thursday . . .
"Is the weather fait-ing beau enough for a sunbath?"

France

GOOCH HOUSE

Seven members — twelve birthday parties . . .
No quiet hour — no quiet . . . 2 A.M. phone calls . . .
Mardi Gras weekend . . . road trips to Hunt Hall . . .
Frequent visitors — Tersh and Hume . . .

THE SPANISH HOUSE

La Casa de Bernarda Alba-Spain across New Street... Haven of homey warmth and hot water and this month's Playboy . . .
"Have you done your French?"
"... to die in Madrid ..."

"212"

Red carpet luxury with "Big Time" . . .
Guitars, banjo, mandolin . . . nightly "concerts" . . .
Members of the "underworld" . . .

"215"

Senior camp . . .
Visiting Ardvaark — or is it a Koala Bear?
Black cat resident . . . dinner for Dr. Brice . . .
Friday afternoon combo parties . . .

LITTLE HOUSE

By tradition a "Junior Haven" . . . 42° upstairs . . . 110° downstairs . . . The Bird of Paradise and a Picasso Dove . . . isolation and sophistication on the Junior level.

BELL HOUSE

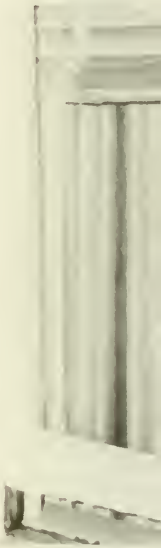
The problems of living a million miles from everywhere except the infirmary . . .
"This is the nurse, what's burning down there?"
"Hello? This is the Phi Kap date service!"
"Guess what? I just locked us out again . . . "

THE BAILEYS

The maze at the bottom of 72 steps . . . Spring days on the side porch . . . and sunbathing on the roof . . . proximity to the blasts and drills, but the excitement of seeing the library go up . . . isolated? . . . not really.

HILL TOP

It's next to the club, but orders out most frequently. "It's unreal" . . . case of the missing alarm clocks . . . Exercises on the second floor to the tinkling rhythm of the new telephone chimes . . .



MEMORIAL

An honest home set against the background shuffle of SMA boots in the street . . .

Quiet hour brightened by a choir of knitting needles and sewing machines and the ricochet of a super ball in the hall . . .

A weary-eyed crew of "Batman" fans and oh-so-many Eta Betas. . . .

McCLUNG

"Get Cinnamon off my bed!!" "How many showers are working tonight?" "Where did all these dirty pots and pans come from?"
Spy cells equipped with binoculars for checking out dates . . .

EDMUNDSON

Sophomores living in Senior tradition . . .
Visits from helpful S.M.A.'s . . .
Lavinia . . . retarded pet bird . . .
Quiet on weekends — deserted . . .

BLAKELY HOUSE

Life on the second-floor . . . a home on the campus . . . open house on a Sunday afternoon . . . close friends and a private world . . .

Some Thoughts Concerning

Life on the Hill

And the little pellets of rain beat on the sidewalk
Creating a mist through which the yellow fades.
And the chestnuts fall with a soft thud
Rolling down the hill and on to freedom.
And the church bells peal out majestically
Enveloping and embracing all in their swing.
And in the fortress some are challenged Finding here the strength to go on,
And Albert Schweitzer died last summer.

Steps and . . .

Now the greenside is sun sprinkled. Trees have born new veined beige, while daffodils, baby's breath and crocuses freckle the borders of sidewalks, steps and paths. Sounds of sunlight and of spring's gleeful children tempt and woo those who sit at desks, who remain too careful.

It is hard to remember not cloud or star or moon watching on the patio in warm winds. Hard to recall the fall days of a strange newness, of an apartness, of autumn solemness and rustness, of the odor of ashes and smoke of colored leaves, of 'what will it be like this year" days. Hard to recall the winter starkness, trees stretched out against the sky, of dark and grey and beige days when everything becomes too much. All and so much more is hard to recall and yet because of the ripeness of the spring and its people, we know that the fruit must have been nurtured and pruned through the year. For some people it is their first springside, for for others their last — "Sadness flies on the wings of the morning, and out of the heart of darkness comes the light." Some may remember a song written by this year's seniors.

Oh heavy heart of sadness,
Free them from your chains,
Leave them to wander in summer's quiet rains,
Where waits the softness of the dawn,
With tears of dew,
Bringing in atop the wind that
"You are you alone".

Autumn rustness, winter starkness, spring yellogreenness, spring ripeness, winds, sunsets, sounds of grass and years growing — seasons, moods, goals, questions and answers,challenges and certainties change, but regardless of these — looking beyond the yellowgreenside is a "blue dream of sky."
